

→ Agreement:

Agreement is a grammatical phenomenon in which a word or phrase changes its form to match the features of another word or phrase in a sentence. This typically involves the matching of grammatical features

Such as ^{number} no, person, gender, and case b/w

two or more elements in a sentence.

→ Types:

i) Subject - Verb Agreement

Subject: singular, plural
Verb: singular, plural

The verb agree with the subject in number

(Singular or plural) and person (1st, 2nd & 3rd)

Example:

The Cat (S) Sleeps (V) on the Bed.

The cats (S) sleep (V) on the Bed.

I (1st person), going to the store.

ii) Adjective - Noun Agreement:

The adjective agrees with the noun it modifies in number, gender and case.

Example:

The big (adj) house (N) is on the hill.

The beautiful (adj) flowers (N) are in the garden.
