

Critical Synopsis Question

i) Why am I reading this?

Purpose: Identify your motivation for reading the text.

Consider: Are you reading for entertainment, education, research, or personal growth?

Clarify: What specific knowledge or insights do you hope to gain from reading the text?

ii) What are the author trying to do in writing this?

Purpose: Understand the author's intent and goals.

Consider: Is the author trying to persuade, inform, entertain, or

— 1 — / 202

Day: _____

educate? : _____

Identify: What message or idea is the author trying to convey?

iii) What are the authors trying to convey that is relevant to what I want to find out?

Purpose: Identify the main ideas, arguments, and supporting evidence.

Consider: What are the key points, claims, and conclusions?

Identify: What evidence, data, or research supports the authors claims?

iv) How convincing is what the author is saying?

Purpose: Evaluate the authors argument and evidence.

Consider: Is the argument logical, well-supported and free from bias?

Assess: How convincing are the evidence, examples & expert opinions?

v) What use can I make of this reading?

Purpose: Reflect on the practical applications and implications.

___/___/202

Day: _____

Consider: How can you apply the knowledge, or insights gained?

Identify: What actions, decisions, or changes can you make based on the reading?