

Q # 2

Explain the characteristics of Entrepreneurs?

The abilities and personal characteristics of the owner exert a powerful influence on the success of a small company. Characteristics of successful owner of small business are that they :-

- (4) Desire Independence
- (2) Have a strong sense of initiative
- (3) Are motivated by personal & Family Considerations
- (4) Expect quick & concrete results
- (5) Are able to react quickly
- (6) Are dedicated to their business
- (7) Enter business as much by chance as by design

(1) Desire Independence:-

Those people who start small businesses seek independence and want to be free of outside control. They enjoy the freedom that comes from doing their own thing & making their own decisions for better or for worse.

(2) Have a strong Sense of Initiative:-

Owners of small business have a strong sense of initiative that give them a desire to use their ideas, abilities and aspiration to the greatest degree possible. They are able to conceive, plan, & carry to a successful conclusion ideas for a new product. This is not always true in larger organization.

(3) Are Motivated by Personal & Family consideration:-

Small business owner are often motivated as much by personal & family consideration as by profit motive. They start and operate their businesses to help their parents children & other family members. The Flexibility afforded small business owner is a great advantage in planning family activities.

(4) Expect Quick & Concrete Result:-

Small business owner are expect quick & concrete result from their investment of time & capital. Instead of engaging in the long-range planning that is common in large business they seek a quick return on their capital.

(5) Are able to React Quickly:-

SB have an advantage over larger firms in that they can react more quickly to changes occurring both inside & outside the company. Example one characteristic of small business is its vulnerability to technological & environmental changes. because the business is small such change have a great effect on its operations and profitability.

(6) Are Dedicated to their Business:-

Small business owner tend to be fiercely dedicated to their companies with so much time, money, energy, emotions invested in it they want to ensure that nothing harms their baby

(7) Enter Business as Much by chance as by design:-

An interesting characteristic of many small business owner is that they get into business as much by chance as by design. There are the owner who quite frequently ask for assistance in the form of management training & development. This type of individual differ sharply from those who attend college with the ambition to become professional managers & who gear their programs toward that end.