

English

Important Short Questions

(Focus On Comprehension)

Q:1 What is meant by tape?

Ans:—

When you first encounter a text, there are a number of questions you need to ask. These are:

- T — What kind of text is it (text type)?
- A — Whom is it aimed at?
- P — What is its purpose?
- E — What effect does it have on me?

Q:2 What is Genre, Explain it?

Ans:—

"Genre" is a term we use to classify different types of fiction such as science fiction and romance. Each genre has its own set of conventions in terms of plot, character, setting and language.

Q:3 Define the term "text type"?

Ans:—

The term "text type" is normally used to describe the various kinds of non-fiction text. The most common of these are;

- Recount
- Information
- Explanation
- Instruction
- Persuasion
- Argument

Q:04 What is meant by the term "Audience"?

Ans:-

We use the term "audience" to describe the intended readership of a text. This is often clear from the title or cover of a book or even the genre.

Q:05 What is the purpose of a text? write four categories of writing purpose?

Ans:-

writing can be divided into four main categories depending on the purposes of the writer. These are:

To imagine, explore, entertain

To inform, explain, describe

To persuade, argue, advise

To analyse, review, comment

These categories are useful when you encounter a text because they help you focus on the writer's intentions. These only give us a rough guide. Many of the more complex texts you will read fit in more than one of these categories.

Q:06 What is meant by Effect and define two types of effects on audience?

Ans:-

A change which is a result or consequence of an action or other cause is called effect. This refers to the effect that writing has on you as a reader. It may be:

- Emotional — (making you feel angry, for instance).
- Rational — (making you better informed).

Q:07 What are the types of sentences? Define simple, co-ordinated and complex sentences?

Ans:—

There are the three basic types of sentences.

- Simple:—

The sentence that contains only one idea.

eg → That cat is black.

- Co-ordinated:—

The sentence that contains two ideas.

eg → He was tall and wore a dark coat.

- Complex:—

The sentence that contains three ideas but also tells us the relationship between them.

eg → Made from a Metal alloy.

Q:08 Define Main and Sub-ordinate clause?

Ans:—

A subordinate clause is a clause that cannot stand alone as a complete sentence, it merely complements a sentence's main clause thereby adding to the whole unit of meaning. Because a subordinate clause is dependent upon the main clause to be meaningful, it is also referred to as a dependent clause.

Example:—

- He entered the room, whistling a cheerful tune.
- Whistling a cheerful tune, he entered the room.

Q # 09 Discuss the structure of main Body paragraph?

Ans:—

Main body Paragraphs are the paragraphs that make up the main body of the text after the introduction and before the conclusion.

Q # 10 What is meant by Reportage?

Ans :-

Reportage is the name given to form of news reporting in which the journalist is a witness of the events that he or she is describing. Often the journalist even becomes involved in the action, which gives the writing a more immediate and personal flavour. This method is often used during wartime or to report on dramatic world events.

Q # 11 What is diary or journal?

Ans :-

A diary or journal is primarily a private form of writing. However, the published diary is a specialized genre which enables the writer to appear to be very close to the reader. When we read a well-written diary, we feel as if we are being taken into the writer's confidence. This makes it the perfect genre for analyzing and conveying the individual's thoughts and feelings.

Q # 12 What is meant by Review?

Ans :-

A review is essentially one person's view of a product or work of art. It is important that the reviewer is an expert and that we respect his or her opinions.

Here is a very critical view of the most popular films of the last few years. The reviewer has chosen to go against the general opinion and signals his disapproval from the first sentence.

Q # 13 What is meant by Newspaper column?

Ans :-

The newspaper column is another form of journalism that consists of one person's opinion.

Columnists often become famous for their controversial views.

Q # 14 What is an effective argument text?
Mention the important features of an argument.

Ans :-

An effective argument text is one that convinces the reader by guiding him/her through a logical thought process.

Features :-

Here is a list of the important features of an argument.

- One point is clearly linked to the next with connective words or phrases.
- Points are made in a logical order.
- The writer takes accounts of a variety of views and deals with them.
- Humour is used to appeal to the reader.
- So is a straightforward language.
- The writer usually appeals to the reader's common sense.

Q # 15 Discuss the organization and structure of Explanatory texts?

Ans :-

The skilful writers can take a complex subject and explain it clearly and simply. Such texts use the structures of cause and effect to guide the reader through the ideas in a logical manner.

Paragraph Development

Q # 01 what is meant by paragraph: what is the structure of the paragraph?

Ans :-

In written form, English is divided into paragraphs to distinguish one main idea from other main idea.

The paragraph is the basic unit of composition.

Structure :-

- A paragraph is a group of sentences which develop one central idea.
- The central idea is usually stated in a topic sentence.
- Every sentence in the paragraph must help the development of the topic sentence.

Q # 02 what is meant by indentation?

Ans :-

The first sentence of a paragraph is always indented so that the reader will know that a new subject - or a different aspect of the same subject is being dealt with.

Q # 03 Discuss the length of the Paragraph? How long should a paragraph be?

Ans :-

A paragraph may vary in length. Some paragraphs are quite short; others are extremely long. Most paragraphs have more than three sentences in them and usually have between one hundred and two hundred words.

Q # 04 What is meant by Topic Sentence? Where does topic sentence usually come in a paragraph?

Ans:—

The first sentence of a paragraph is usually called the "topic sentence."

- The topic sentence usually at the end of the paragraph (as a kind of conclusion)
- or even in the middle (as a kind of link between two parts)

Q # 05 What are the techniques that a writer can use to limit a paragraph topic. Identify the eight categories?

Ans:—

There are the following techniques that a writer can use to limit a paragraph topic.

- Place
- Time
- Aspect
- Similarities
- Differences
- Number
- Effect
- Cause

Q # 06 What is meant by Anecdote?

Ans:—

An anecdote is a short, entertaining account of some happening. It is usually personal. It may be thought of as a lengthy example.