

Functional English

Sentence structure

1. Simple Sentence:

A single independent clause that expresses a complete thought. e.g.: I like reading.

2. Compound Sentence:

Two or more independent clause joined by a conjunction.

e.g.: I like reading and my sister likes writing.

3. Complex Sentence:

An independent clause and one or more dependent clause.

e.g.: I went to the store because I needed milk.

4. Compound Complex Sentence:

Multiple independent clauses and one or more dependent clauses.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Clause Structure

1. Independent clause:

A clause that can stand alone as a complete sentence.

Example: I like bearding.

2. Dependent clause

A clause that cannot stand alone as a complete sentence.

Example: I went to the store because I needed milk.

Phrase Structure

1. Noun Phrase

A phrase that functions as a noun.

e.g.: The big red car.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

2. Verb Phrase

A phrase that functions as a verb.

Example: is running quickly.

3. Adjective Phrase

A phrase that functions as an adjective.

Example: very happy.

4. Adverb Phrase

A phrase that functions as an adverb.

Example: quickly and carefully.

Sentence Function

1. Declarative (Function) Sentence

A sentence that states a fact or opinion.

2. Interrogative Sentence

A sentence that asks a question.

Example: Do you like reading?

3. Imperative Sentence

A sentence that gives a command or makes a request.

Checked By: _____ Rechecked By: _____ Parents: _____

Example: Please pass the book.

4. Exclamatory Sentence.

A sentence that expresses strong emotions.

Example: "What a beautiful day."

Listening

Types

1. Active Listening:

Fully concentrating on what the speaker is saying, understanding, and responding appropriately.

2. Passive Listening:

Hearing the words but not fully concentrating or understanding message.

3. Selective Listening:

Focusing on specific parts of the message while ignoring others.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

4. Empathic Listening:

Understanding and sharing the feelings of the speaker.

Key / Skills of Effective Listening:

1. Attention:

Focus on the speaker and avoid distractions

2. Comprehension:

Understand the message including the words, tone and context

3. Memory

Recall the main points and key detail

4. Interpretation:

Analyse and evaluate the information.

5. Response: PUACP

React appropriately, asking questions, or providing feedback.

Barriers to Effective Listening:

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

1. Distractions:

Environmental noise, internal thoughts, or external stimuli.

2. Biases:

Preconceived notions or assumptions that influence understanding.

3. Language Barriers:

Difficulty understanding due to language differences.

4. Emotional Interference

Strong emotions that affect focus or comprehension.

Strategies for Improving Listening

1. Practice Active Listening.

Focus on the speaker, maintain eye contact, and ask clarifying questions.

2. Avoid Interruptions.

Allow the speaker to finish before responding.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

3. Use verbal and non verbal cues

Not make eye contact and use phrases like "I see" or "uh-huh"

4. Paraphrase and Summarize

Repeat back what you've heard to ensure understanding

Presentation Skills:

Define وقال رب زدني علما

A presentation is a communication process where a speaker conveys information, ideas, or message to an audience through verbal and visual means, often with the goal of informing, persuading, or educating.

imp Key Elements:

1. Speaker, The presenter delivering the

Checked By: _____ Rechecked By: _____ Parents: _____

message.

2. Audience: The group receiving the message.
3. Message: The information, idea, or topic being presented.
4. Visual Aids: Supporting materials like slides, images, or props.
5. Delivery: The speaker's style, tone, and body language.
6. Confidence: Believe in your message.
7. Clarity: Articulate thoughts clearly.
8. Eye Contact: Engage with the audience.
9. Body Language: Positive nonverbal cues.
10. Vocal variety: Vary tone, pitch and pace.
11. Story telling: Share relatable narratives.
12. Audience Engagement: Encourage interaction.
13. Organization: Logical structure.
14. Visual Aids: Effective slides and images.
15. Time management: stay within allotted time.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Types

1. Formal : conferences , meetings
2. Informal : discussions , brain-storming
3. Interactive : workshops , training
4. Virtual : online webinars , video conferencing
5. Informative : Share knowledge or facts
6. Persuasive : Influence decisions or actions
7. Instructional : Teach skills or procedures
8. (Motivational) Inspirational : Motivate or inspire

Purpose: وقل رب زدني علما

1. Inform
2. Persuade
3. Educate
4. Entertain
5. Inspire

Effective presentation characteristics

1. clear structure
2. Engaging content

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

3. Confident delivery
4. Visual appeal
5. Audience interaction

Presentation Formats

1. Speeches
2. Lectures
3. workshops
4. Seminars
5. webinars
6. Pitch presentation
7. Conference presentation

imp Presentation Strategies

1. know your audience: Tailor content and language.
 وَقُلْ رَبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا
2. Focus on key message: Prioritize main point.
3. Use Rhetorical Devices: Persuasive techniques.
4. Practice Mindfulness: Stay present.
5. Handle Questions: Prepare for common queries.
6. Use humor: Break the ice.
7. Create the strong opening: Grab attention.
8. Use real life Examples: Illustrate complex

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

concepts.

9. Provide Takeaways : Summarize key points.

10. Evaluate Feedback : Continuously improve.

Imp Improving Presentation Skills.

1. Practice regularly.

2. Record yourself.

3. Seek feedback.

4. Attend presentation workshops.

5. Join public speaking groups.

6. Reflect on past presentations.

7. Set goals for future presentations.

Common presentation Mistakes

1. Information overload.

2. Poor time management.

3. Distractions.

4. Lack of engagement.

5. Ineffective visual aids.

Presentation Tools / Popular Audio visual Tools.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

1. Power point
2. Google Slides
3. Prezi
4. Key note
5. Canva

imp Presentation Tips

1. Focus on your message
2. Use confident body language
3. Vary your tone and pace
4. Encourage audience interaction
5. Practice mindfulness

imp Additional Resources

1. Online courses
 2. Presentation books and articles
 3. TED talks and public speaking videos
 4. Presentation communities
 5. Local presentation events and conference
- Developing effective presentation.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Improving Oral Presentation Skills Preparation

1. Research your topic thoroughly.
2. Organize your content logically.
3. Practice in front of mirror or audience.
4. Seek feedback from peers or mentors.
5. Record yourself for self assessment.

Principles of Communication

Define: وقال رب زدني علما

Effective communication is crucial for conveying ideas, building relationships, and achieving success. Here are the fundamental principles.

PUACP

Verbal Communication

Principles

1. Clarity: clear and concise language.
2. Accuracy: Factually correct information.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

3. Completeness: Provide necessary details.
4. Conciseness: Avoid unnecessary information.
5. Relevance: Appropriate for the context.

imp Non-verbal Communication principles.

1. Consistency: Align verbal and nonverbal cues.
2. Awareness: Recognize non-verbal signals.
3. Empathy: Understand and show emotional intelligence.

Interpersonal Communication principles

1. Active Listening: Engage fully with the speaker.
2. Feedback: Constructive and timely.
3. Empathy: Understand and acknowledge emotions.
4. Respect: value diverse perspective.

Mass communication principles.

1. Target audience: know your audience.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

2. Clear Message : Simple and concise.
3. Effective channel : choose the right medium.
4. Feedback Mechanism : Encourage response.

General Communication principles.

1. Purpose : clear objectives.
2. Audience & Analysis : Understand recipients.
3. Message Encoding : Effective language.
4. Channel Selection : Appropriate medium.
5. Decoding and Feedback : Ensure understanding.

Key Communication Skills.

1. Listening
2. Speaking
3. Writing
4. Reading
5. Non-verbal communication
5. Clarity
6. Conciseness
7. Respect
8. Active Listening
9. Feedback

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Barriers to Effective Communication

1. Language differences
2. Cultural differences
3. Noise and distractions
4. Emotional barriers
5. Technological issues

Overcoming Communication Barriers

1. Practice active
 2. Use clear language
 3. Avoid assumptions
 4. Ask clarifying questions
 5. Seek feedback
-

Reading Strategy

Define

Reading strategies are techniques used to improve reading comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary. Reading strategies can be used in various situations, such as:

- Before reading
- After reading
- During reading

Before reading

To set purposes, activate prior knowledge, preview the text, and make predictions.

During reading

To visualize, make connections, identify main ideas, and supporting details, and monitor comprehension.

After reading

To summarize, make inferences, evaluate the text, and reflect on the reading.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

experience.

Additionally, reading strategies can be used.

Improve vocabulary:

By using context clues, word analysis, visualizing vocabulary, and using dictionaries and the sources.

Enhance fluency:

By using phrasing intonation, pacing and expression.

Increase ^{وقا دشت زلفی} Comprehension:

By identifying main ideas and supporting details, making inferences, identifying author's purpose and tone and evaluating the text.

PUACP

Authenticating is a useful reading strategy that helps readers:

1. Think critically about information.
2. Evaluate source credibility.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

3. Improve comprehension
4. Develop media literacy
5. Prevent misinformation.

Parts of Speech

Part of speech means the words based on their grammatical function and meaning.

1) Noun

Words that refer to people, places, things, and ideas. (e.g., book, city, teacher)

2) Pronoun

وقال رب زدني علما

Words that replace nouns in a sentence. (e.g., he, she, it, they)

3) Verb

Words that express actions, events, or states. (e.g., run, eat, think)

4. Adjectives

Words that describe or modify nouns or pronouns. (e.g., happy, big, blue)

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

5. Adverbs

words that describe or modify verbs, adjectives or other adverbs. (e.g. quickly, very, well)

6. Prepositions

words that show relationship between words or phrases. (e.g. in, on, under)

7. Conjunctions

words that connect words, phrases, or clauses (e.g. and, but, or)

8. Interjections

words that express emotions or feelings. (e.g. oh, wow, such)

9. Articles

words that modify nouns and indicate whether they are specific or general (e.g. the, a, an)

Skimming and Scanning

Skimming and scanning are two essential reading techniques used to quickly gather information from texts.

Skimming

1. Purpose: To get a general idea or overview of the content.
2. Technique: Glance over headings, subheadings, bullet points, and key phrases.
3. Focus: Main ideas, structure and organization.

Scanning

1. Purpose: To find specific information or answers to questions.
2. Technique: Look for specific keywords, phrases, or numbers.
3. Focus: Detailed information, statistics, or facts.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parent's: _____

when to use each:

Skim when:

- Browsing through a long document or article.
- Deciding whether to read something in depth.

Scan when:

- Searching for specific information.
- Needing to find data or statistics.

Formal writing differ from informal writing

Formal writing

1. Tone: Objective, neutral, and professional.
2. Language: Complex vocabulary, precise, and avoidance of contractions.
3. Structure: Organized, logical and adhering to conventions.
4. Purpose: To convey information, present, arguments or express opinions in a professional or

Checked By:

Rechecked By:

academic setting.

Examples of Formal writing

- Academic essays
- Business reports
- Official letters
- Research papers
- Technical documents.

Informal writing

1. Tone: Conversational, friendly, and sometimes humorous.
2. Language: Simple vocabulary, colloquialisms, and use of contractions.
3. Structure: Flexible, spontaneous, and often without formal organization.
4. Purpose: To communicate with friends, family, or peers in a casual setting.

Example of Informal writing

- Social media posts.
- Text messages

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

- Formal email
- Blog posts
- Chat room conversations

Key Differences

- Level of formality: Formal writing is used in formal and academic life. Informal writing is casual and originates in everyday life.
- Language and style: Formal writing uses complex vocabulary and a more complex sentence structure. Informal writing uses simple language and a more direct style.
- Purpose and audience: Formal writing is used for professional or academic purposes. Informal writing is used for personal communication.

Contextual Vocabulary

Contextual vocabulary refers to words and phrases that are understood based on the context in which they are used. This type of vocabulary is essential for effective communication as it helps convey meaning and nuance.

Characteristics of Contextual Vocabulary:

1. Dependence on context: Meaning is derived from the surrounding words, phrases and situation.
2. Implied meaning: Words or phrases convey a meaning that is not explicitly stated.
3. Inferential: Readers or Listeners must infer the meaning based on the context.

Examples of Contextual Vocabulary

1. "Break a leg"! (means "Good luck")
2. "Call it a day." (means "Stop what you're doing and go home.")

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

3. "Cost an arm and a leg" (means "Something is very expensive.")

Benefits of Contextual Vocabulary.

1. Adds nuance and depth: Contextual vocabulary helps convey subtle shades of meaning.
2. Enhances communication: It allows speakers and writers to convey complex ideas and emotions.
3. Develops ~~critical~~ ^{critical} thinking: Readers and listeners must think critically to understand the implied meaning.

Tips for Learning Contextual Vocabulary. PUACP

1. Read widely: Expose yourself to various, text genres, and authors.
2. Practice active listening: Pay attention to how people use language in different

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Functional English

Sentence structure

1. Simple Sentence:

A single independent clause that expresses a complete thought. e.g.: I like reading.

2. Compound Sentence:

Two or more independent clause joined by a conjunction.

e.g.: I like reading and my sister likes writing.

3. Complex Sentence:

An independent clause and one or more dependent clause.

e.g.: I went to the store because I needed milk.

4. Compound Complex Sentence:

Multiple independent clauses and one or more dependent clauses.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Clause Structure

1. Independent clause:

A clause that can stand alone as a complete sentence.

Example: I like bearding.

2. Dependent clause

A clause that cannot stand alone as a complete sentence.

Example: I went to the store because I needed milk.

Phrase Structure

1. Noun Phrase

A phrase that functions as a noun.

e.g.: The big red car.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

2. Verb Phrase

A phrase that functions as a verb.

Example: is running quickly.

3. Adjective Phrase

A phrase that functions as an adjective.

Example: very happy.

4. Adverb Phrase

A phrase that functions as an adverb.

Example: quickly and carefully.

Sentence Function

1. Declarative (Function) Sentence

A sentence that states a fact or opinion.

2. Interrogative Sentence

A sentence that asks a question.

Example: Do you like reading?

3. Imperative Sentence

A sentence that gives a command or makes a request.

Checked By: _____ Rechecked By: _____ Parents: _____

Example: Please pass the book.

4. Exclamatory Sentence.

A sentence that expresses strong emotions.

Example: "What a beautiful day."

Listening

Types

1. Active Listening:

Fully concentrating on what the speaker is saying, understanding, and responding appropriately.

2. Passive Listening:

Hearing the words but not fully concentrating or understanding message.

3. Selective Listening:

Focusing on specific parts of the message while ignoring others.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

4. Empathic Listening:

Understanding and sharing the feelings of the speaker.

Key / Skills of Effective Listening:

1. Attention:

Focus on the speaker and avoid distractions

2. Comprehension:

Understand the message including the words, tone and context

3. Memory

Recall the main points and key detail

4. Interpretation:

Analyse and evaluate the information.

5. Response: PUACP

React appropriately, asking questions, or providing feedback.

Barriers to Effective Listening:

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

1. Distractions:

Environmental noise, internal thoughts, or external stimuli.

2. Biases:

Preconceived notions or assumptions that influence understanding.

3. Language Barriers:

Difficulty understanding due to language differences.

4. Emotional Interference

Strong emotions that affect focus or comprehension.

Strategies for Improving Listening

1. Practice Active Listening.

Focus on the speaker, maintain eye contact, and ask clarifying questions.

2. Avoid Interruptions.

Allow the speaker to finish before responding.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

3. Use verbal and non verbal cues

Not make eye contact and use phrases like "I see" or "uh-huh"

4. Paraphrase and Summarize

Repeat back what you've heard to ensure understanding

Presentation Skills:

Define وقال رب زدني علما

A presentation is a communication process where a speaker conveys information, ideas, or message to an audience through verbal and visual means, often with the goal of informing, persuading, or educating.

imp Key Elements:

1. Speaker, The presenter delivering the

Checked By: _____ Rechecked By: _____ Parents: _____

message.

2. Audience: The group receiving the message.
3. Message: The information, idea, or topic being presented.
4. Visual Aids: Supporting materials like slides, images, or props.
5. Delivery: The speaker's style, tone, and body language.
6. Confidence: Believe in your message.
7. Clarity: Articulate thoughts clearly.
8. Eye Contact: Engage with the audience.
9. Body Language: Positive nonverbal cues.
10. Vocal variety: Vary tone, pitch and pace.
11. Story telling: Share relatable narratives.
12. Audience Engagement: Encourage interaction.
13. Organization: Logical structure.
14. Visual Aids: Effective slides and images.
15. Time management: stay within allotted time.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Types

1. Formal : conferences , meetings
2. Informal : discussions , brain-storming
3. Interactive : workshops , training
4. Virtual : online webinars , video conferencing
5. Informative : Share knowledge or facts
6. Persuasive : Influence decisions or actions
7. Instructional : Teach skills or procedures
8. (Motivational) Inspirational : Motivate or inspire

Purpose: وقل رب زدني علما

1. Inform
2. Persuade
3. Educate
4. Entertain
5. Inspire

Effective presentation characteristics

1. clear structure
2. Engaging content

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

3. Confident delivery
4. Visual appeal
5. Audience interaction

Presentation Formats

1. Speeches
2. Lectures
3. workshops
4. Seminars
5. webinars
6. Pitch presentation
7. Conference presentation

imp Presentation Strategies

1. know your audience: Tailor content and language.
 وَقُلْ رَبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا
2. Focus on key message: Prioritize main point.
3. Use Rhetorical Devices: Persuasive techniques.
4. Practice Mindfulness: Stay present.
5. Handle Questions: Prepare for common queries.
6. Use humor: Break the ice.
7. Create the strong opening: Grab attention.
8. Use real life Examples: Illustrate complex

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

concepts.

9. Provide Takeaways : Summarize key points.

10. Evaluate Feedback : Continuously improve.

Imp Improving Presentation Skills.

1. Practice regularly

2. Record yourself

3. Seek feedback

4. Attend presentation workshops

5. Join public speaking groups

6. Reflect on past presentations

7. Set goals for future presentations

Common presentation Mistakes

1. Information overload

2. Poor time management

3. Distractions

4. Lack of engagement

5. Ineffective visual aids.

Presentation Tools / Popular Audio visual Tools.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

1. Power point
2. Google Slides
3. Prezi
4. Key note
5. Canva

imp Presentation Tips

1. Focus on your message
2. Use confident body language
3. Vary your tone and pace
4. Encourage audience interaction
5. Practice mindfulness

imp Additional Resources

1. Online courses
 2. Presentation books and articles
 3. TED talks and public speaking videos
 4. Presentation communities
 5. Local presentation events and conference
- Developing effective presentation.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Improving Oral Presentation Skills Preparation

1. Research your topic thoroughly.
2. Organize your content logically.
3. Practice in front of mirror or audience.
4. Seek feedback from peers or mentors.
5. Record yourself for self assessment.

Principles of Communication

Define: وقال رب زدني علما

Effective communication is crucial for conveying ideas, building relationships, and achieving success. Here are the fundamental principles.

PUACP

Verbal Communication

Principles

1. Clarity: clear and concise language.
2. Accuracy: Factually correct information.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

3. Completeness: Provide necessary details.
4. Conciseness: Avoid unnecessary information.
5. Relevance: Appropriate for the context.

imp Non-verbal Communication principles.

1. Consistency: Align verbal and nonverbal cues.
2. Awareness: Recognize non-verbal signals.
3. Empathy: Understand and show emotional intelligence.

Interpersonal Communication principles

1. Active Listening: Engage fully with the speaker.
2. Feedback: Constructive and timely.
3. Empathy: Understand and acknowledge emotions.
4. Respect: value diverse perspective.

Mass communication principles.

1. Target audience: know your audience.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

2. Clear Message : Simple and concise.
3. Effective channel : choose the right medium.
4. Feedback Mechanism : Encourage response.

General Communication principles.

1. Purpose : clear objectives.
2. Audience & Analysis : Understand recipients.
3. Message Encoding : Effective language.
4. Channel Selection : Appropriate medium.
5. Decoding and Feedback : Ensure understanding.

Key Communication Skills.

1. Listening
2. Speaking
3. Writing
4. Reading
5. Non-verbal communication
5. Clarity
6. Conciseness
7. Respect
8. Active Listening
9. Feedback

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

Barriers to Effective Communication

1. Language differences
2. Cultural differences
3. Noise and distractions
4. Emotional barriers
5. Technological issues

Overcoming Communication Barriers

1. Practice active
 2. Use clear language
 3. Avoid assumptions
 4. Ask clarifying questions
 5. Seek feedback
-

Reading Strategy

Define

Reading strategies are techniques used to improve reading comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary. Reading strategies can be used in various situations, such as:

- Before reading
- After reading
- During reading

Before reading

To set purposes, activate prior knowledge, preview the text, and make predictions.

During reading

To visualize, make connections, identify main ideas, and supporting details, and monitor comprehension.

After reading

To summarize, make inferences, evaluate the text, and reflect on the reading.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

experience.

Additionally, reading strategies can be used.

Improve vocabulary:

By using context clues, word analysis, visualizing vocabulary, and using dictionaries and the sources.

Enhance fluency:

By using phrasing intonation, pacing and expression.

Increase ^{وقا دشت زلفی} Comprehension:

By identifying main ideas and supporting details, making inferences, identifying author's purpose and tone and evaluating the text.

PUACP

Authenticating is a useful reading strategy that helps readers:

1. Think critically about information.
2. Evaluate source credibility.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

3. Improve comprehension
4. Develop media literacy
5. Prevent misinformation.

Parts of Speech

Part of speech means the words based on their grammatical function and meaning.

1) Noun

Words that refer to people, places, things, and ideas. (e.g., book, city, teacher)

2) Pronoun

وقال رب زدني علما

Words that replace nouns in a sentence. (e.g., he, she, it, they)

3) Verb

Words that express actions, events, or states. (e.g., run, eat, think)

4. Adjectives

Words that describe or modify nouns or pronouns. (e.g., happy, big, blue)

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

5. Adverbs

words that describe or modify verbs, adjectives or other adverbs. (e.g. quickly, very, well)

6. Prepositions

words that show relationship between words or phrases. (e.g. in, on, under)

7. Conjunctions

words that connect words, phrases, or clauses (e.g. and, but, or)

8. Interjections

words that express emotions or feelings. (e.g. oh, wow, such)

9. Articles

words that modify nouns and indicate whether they are specific or general (e.g. the, a, an)

Skimming and Scanning

Skimming and scanning are two essential reading techniques used to quickly gather information from texts.

Skimming

1. Purpose: To get a general idea or overview of the content.
2. Technique: Glance over headings, subheadings, bullet points, and key phrases.
3. Focus: Main ideas, structure and organization.

Scanning

1. Purpose: To find specific information or answers to questions.
2. Technique: Look for specific keywords, phrases, or numbers.
3. Focus: Detailed information, statistics, or facts.

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parent's: _____

when to use each:

Skim when:

- Browsing through a long document or article.
- Deciding whether to read something in depth.

Scan when:

- Searching for specific information.
- Needing to find data or statistics.

Formal writing differ from informal writing

Formal writing

1. Tone: Objective, neutral, and professional.
2. Language: Complex vocabulary, precise, and avoidance of contractions.
3. Structure: Organized, logical and adhering to conventions.
4. Purpose: To convey information, present, arguments or express opinions in a professional or

Checked By:

Rechecked By:

academic setting.

Examples of Formal writing

- Academic essays
- Business reports
- Official letters
- Research papers
- Technical documents.

Informal writing

1. Tone: Conversational, friendly, and sometimes humorous.
2. Language: Simple vocabulary, colloquialisms, and use of contractions.
3. Structure: Flexible, spontaneous, and often without formal organization.
4. Purpose: To communicate with friends, family, or peers in a casual setting.

Example of Informal writing

- Social media posts.
- Text messages

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

- Formal email
- Blog posts
- Chat room conversations

Key Differences

- Level of formality: Formal writing is used in formal and academic contexts. Informal writing is used in casual and personal contexts.
- Language and tone: Formal writing uses a more sophisticated vocabulary and a more objective tone. Informal writing uses a more conversational tone and a more subjective tone.
- Purpose and audience: Formal writing is used for professional or academic purposes and is written for a specific audience. Informal writing is used for personal communication and is written for a general audience.

Contextual Vocabulary

Contextual vocabulary refers to words and phrases that are understood based on the context in which they are used. This type of vocabulary is essential for effective communication as it helps convey meaning and nuance.

Characteristics of Contextual Vocabulary:

1. Dependence on context: Meaning is derived from the surrounding words, phrases and situation.
2. Implied meaning: Words or phrases convey a meaning that is not explicitly stated.
3. Inferential: Readers or Listeners must infer the meaning based on the context.

Examples of Contextual Vocabulary

1. "Break a leg"! (means "Good luck")
2. "Call it a day." (means "Stop what you're doing and go home.")

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____

3. "Cost an arm and a leg" (means "Something is very expensive.")

Benefits of Contextual Vocabulary.

1. Adds nuance and depth: Contextual vocabulary helps convey subtle shades of meaning.
2. Enhances communication: It allows speakers and writers to convey complex ideas and emotions.
3. Develops ~~critical~~ ^{critical} thinking: Readers and listeners must think critically to understand the implied meaning.

Tips for Learning Contextual Vocabulary. PUACP

1. Read widely: Expose yourself to various, texts, genres, and authors.
2. Practice active listening: Pay attention to how people use language in different

Checked By: _____

Rechecked By: _____

Parents: _____