Pakistan Afghanistan relations

Pakistan & Afghanistan relations are always influenced by external factors .Factors which most influenced the Pak- Afghan relation are Pashtunistan Issue and Durand line. Pakistan been in try to smooth the relation with Afghanistan .In historical context when Soviet Union invade Afghanistan then the Pakistan help the Afghanistan. During the Soviet Union invasion in Afghanistan the most of the families migrate to Pakistan & Pakistan helped them out to provide them refugee.

From 1980 onwards significant transformation was made in Pak Afghan relations .When in 1980 Soviet Union Invade the US led Allies launched the “ Mujahedeen”. Pakistan provided the stay to these “mujahidin” Afghanistan claimed. After ending the Soviet invasion , Pak-Afghan relation not get peace talks. In 1996 the rise of new force “ Afghan Taliban Power” , after Taliban ‘s govt Pakistan expected the peace relations with Afghanistan but after the 9/11 incident in 2001 , America invaded Afghanistan and Pakistan has to joined the Russian community.

After Western Backed govt in Afghanistan Pakistan relation even not in a line .

Since 2021 when again Taliban govt came into power in Afghanistan , Pakistan officially on different forums welcome the new govt of Taliban.

Challenges from Afghanistan

The on going challenges Pakistan is facing from Afghanistan are serious to bring them to table-talk.

1:Increasing Insurgencies by TTP. TTP extract some jihad elements from Taliban in Afghanistan. In consequences Pakistan faces TTP attacks because TTP inspired by Taliban in Afghanistan and Taliban truly test for Pakistan.

3:Banning women education in Afghanistan ultimately effect Pashtun in Pakistan.

2:Boundary issue : Taliban did not accept international boundary with Pakistan. They attack on civilians and Pakistan forces also.

3:Last major challenge, Taliban is not going to show soft attitude towards international forums.

4:Pakistan foreign minister also condemn Taliban government on international forum.

Pakistan broad interest in Afghanistan :

- Strategic and security interests
- Political interest
- Geoeconomic interest
- Cultural interest

1:Strategic and security interest :

Pakistan want to avoid territorial conflict.

Pakistan want to minimize the promotion of Pashtunistan, territorial issue.

2: political interest :

Pakistan has already issue with India in LOC after terminating the LOC with India. Pakistan has to face major conflict on such a largest boundary. As Pakistan is developing country do, it cannot afford such issue.

3:Goeconomic interest :

Pakistan want to expand CPEC project with Afghanistan along with China. In this way Pakistan will access to central Asia market through Afghanistan because it is between Pakistan and Central Asia.

4: cultural interest :

Pakistan and Afghanistan shares unitary Muslim culture values so it portrait to the world that there is deep brotherhood linkage in Muslim religion context is rooted between Pakistan and Afghanistan.

Future prospect:

Saying was “ States have interests , not friendship” .

The govt in Afghanistan all will be responsible for the future relations of Pak-Afghan .It will rely on the nature of decisions the Afghan Taliban Govt will take.

If there will be no peace in Afghanistan ultimately Pakistan will also suffer. Current scenario showing the shortage of the foreign money in Afghanistan , this leads to money smuggling, which may be routed through Pakistan to Afghanistan. In context of current scenario in Afghanistan is not imaginary & alarming situation is increasing the terrorism in Pakistan.
