

Topic: Teacher as Leader

Name: SIDRA TUL MUNTHA

ROLL NO: 156

TOPIC NO 2.3:

TEACHER AS LEADER:

INTRODUCTION:-

Teacher leaders lead both within and beyond their classroom

JACOBS SAY teacher leaders are characterized by their ability to lead others in every role they hold at their school. Teacher leadership is leading within and beyond the classroom. Teachers can be leaders as they model best practices.

➤ ROLE OF TEACHING AS LEDERSHIP:

The role of teachers as leaders of learning, there is logic in considering them as role model to their students.

- Teachers influence the morality
- Work Ethic
- Citizenship
- Character of their students

➤ SKILLS:

- Promoting a clear vision.
- Taking initiative.
- Building support with parents and community.
- Analyzing and making program adjustments.
- Providing support and encouragement for other teachers.

✚ AS AN INSTRUCTIONAL LEADER (Strategic Planning, Vision and Mission)

Instructional leadership is a model of school leadership in which a principal works alongside teachers to provide support and guidance in establishing best practices in teaching.

1. Strategic Planning:

Strategic planning is a process in which an organization's leaders define their vision for the future and identify their organization's goals and objectives. A solid strategic plan articulates a shared vision, mission, and values, increasing engagement while providing a framework to ensure students' needs are met so they can reach their full potential

2. Vision AND Mission:

The vision and mission of a school are strong statements or declarations of its values, purpose, and future .They are the core values, objectives, and aims through which a school walks on the trajectory of success. As the saying goes, "Without vision and mission, people perish," the same applies to schools.

AS AN TRANSFORMATION LEADER :

Transformational leadership is defined as a leadership approach that causes change in individuals and social systems.

It is comprised of FOUR Elements:

- 1: INSPIRATIONAL MOTIVATION (Clear vision ,Optimism, Inclusion)
- 2: INDIVIDUAL CONSIDERATION .(Mentor-ship , Empathy)
- 3: IDEALIZED INFLUENCE. (Role model, Enthusiasm , Embody values)
- 4: INTELLECTUAL STIMULATION . (Innovation, Goals ,Creativity)

HUMAN RELATIONSHIP: the Base for Education Leadership

❖ Definition of Human Relationship:

Human relationship are formed on different circumstances; it could be cultural, social family, friendship, work and social groups. Leadership and human relation go side by side, you can chose between them, and you have to choose them altogether.

❖ Education leadership

Educational leadership depends on human relation, it all about at every level, Relationship with teaching staff, administrative staff and students. Without good relation with teacher it is impossible for a leader to achieve good academic result. Therefore good relations between leader and his school teachers are very important for the improvement of school and the over-all performance of teachers.

❖ ROLE OF LEADER IN EDUCATION

It is very Delicate and critical. He keeps his relation with all stakeholders of the school and keeps balance in them, fighting and quarrelling students, reluctant and difficult teasers and complaining parents. The leader will establish good relation between all of them.

B.ED Elementary Education (7thsmester)

Course: EDE-323

Subject: School Organization and Management

Topic: Teacher as Leader

Roll No: 145

Teacher as a Leader (Instructional Leader, Transformational Leader Human Relationship)

Teacher:

A teacher is a person who help pupils learn and develop their knowledge, values and attitudes. Teachers significantly shape the future of people, society and the entire planet. They educate the empower students to succeed in the classroom, their personal life and their careers.

Teacher as Leader:

A teacher can be a powerful leader in the classroom, guiding students through learning experiences, fostering a positive environment, and inspiring a love for knowledge. Effective leadership in education involves empathy, effective communication, and the ability to adapt teaching methods to meet the diverse needs of students.

Teacher Leadership Role Inside and Outside of the Classroom:

Teachers are leaders all day. They lead by example in the way they act, speak, and behave. They lead their students through challenging activities and rigorous learning. Then, they take on additional teacher leadership roles inside and outside the classroom. Activities, events, and extracurricular programs are what build positive school culture and often require additional leadership support from teachers. Endless academic and social opportunities for students within schools benefit from teacher initiative and leadership capabilities.

Leadership styles;

Here are three leadership styles that teacher leaders can use inside and outside the classroom.

❖ Authoritative Leadership

Authoritative leaders push their teams to pursue common goals. They balance maintaining a high bar and inspiring their teams to success.

❖ Democratic Leadership

Democratic leaders are the first to seek feedback and share decision-making responsibilities. In education, this often means gathering feedback from students, staff, administrators, and families to implement school-wide changes and policies.

❖ Coaching Leadership

Coaching leaders take young or struggling teachers under their wings to mentor. This style of leadership is usually time-consuming and requires much empathy and patience on the leader's part.

Teacher as an Instructional Leader:

As an instructional leader, a teacher takes on the role of guiding and improving the overall teaching and learning process. This involves setting clear learning objectives, designing effective lesson plans, implementing innovative teaching strategies, and regularly assessing student progress. By staying informed about educational trends and adapting their methods accordingly, teachers enhance the quality of instruction and contribute to student success.

Teacher as an Transformational Leader:

A transformational leader in education inspires and motivates students and staff to reach their full potential. Teachers adopting this style focus on fostering creativity, encouraging critical thinking, and promoting a positive learning environment. This approach can lead to improved student engagement and achievement.

Human Relationship; the base for educational leadership:

Teachers, as leaders, play a crucial role in establishing positive human relationships within the learning environment. Building strong connections with students and colleagues fosters trust, open communication, and a supportive atmosphere. These relationships are integral to effective teaching and create a conducive space for collaboration and personal development.

NAME: MARYAM ABDUL HAMEED

ROLL NO: 165

TOPIC: "TEACHER AS A LEADER"

❖ DEFINITION OF TEACHER:

A teacher also called a schoolteacher or formally an educator, is a person who helps students to acquire knowledge, competence, or virtue, via the practice of teaching.

❖ DEFINITION OF LEADER:

A leader is the one in the charge, the person who convinces other people to follow. A great leader inspires confidence in other people and moves them to action.

❖ DEFINITION OF TEACHER AS A LEADER:

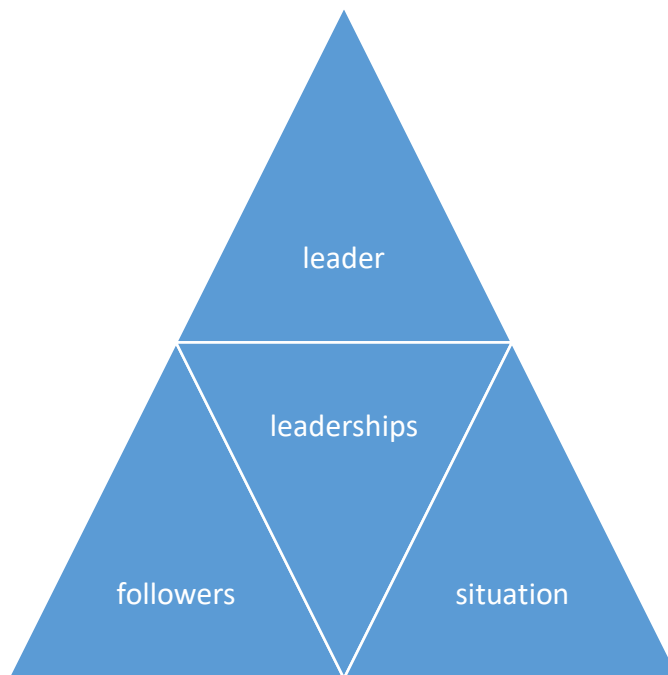

JACOB SAYS;

“Teacher leaders are characterized by their ability to lead others in every role they hold at their school teacher leadership is leading within and beyond the classroom.”

1. TEACHER AS AN INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP:

Azlin and Zabil;

“A process depends not only on position but also on the outcome of interactions between leaders and followers”

WHAT IS THE ROLE OF STRATEGIC PLANNING IN LEADERSHIP:

Strategic planning is a process in which an organization's leaders define their vision for the future and identify their organization's goals and objectives.

❖ WHAT IS THE VISION OF INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP:

Effective instructional leaders create a shared vision for teaching and learning, and provide the support, resources, and guidance needed to help teachers achieve that vision.

Merriam-Webster;

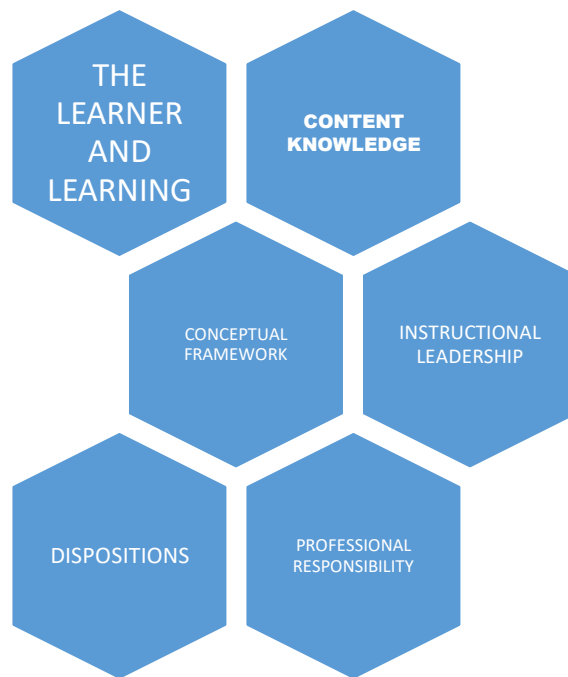

“The act of power of imagination”

❖ WHAT IS THE MISSION AS AN INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP:

LAWLER SAYS;

Defining a mission is a strategy for growing an organization and designing what the organization wants.

❖ CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK:

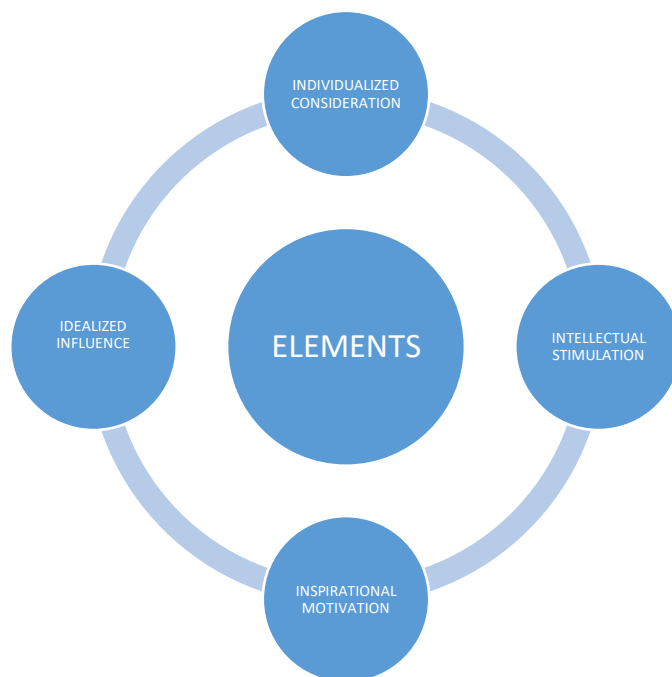

2.TEACHER AS A TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADER:

Transformational leadership is defined as a leadership approach that causes change in individuals and social system. In its ideal form, it creates valuable and positive change in the followers with the end goal of developing followers into leaders.

❖ FOUR ELEMENTS OF TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP:

3.HUMAN RELATIONSHIP:THE BASE FOR EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

❖ Definition of leadership :

“ Leadership occurs when one person includes other to work toward some predetermined objectives” (MASSIE)

❖ Definition of human relationship :

Human relationship: An interpersonal relationship is an association between tow or more people that may range from fleeting to enduring.

❖ Definition of educational leadership :

Educational leadership depends on human relation, it all about relationship at every level, Relationship with teaching staff, administrative staff and students. Without good relation with teacher it is impossible for a leader to achieve good academic result. ■

Without the help of administrative staff and teachers it is almost impossible to run a school in proper order, teachers are the soul of a school and without the help of them the school would be a chaos. Therefore good relations between leader and his school teachers are very important for the improvement of school and the over-all performance of teachers.

B.ED Elementary Education (7thsmester)

Course: EDE-323

Subject: School Organization and Management

Topic: Teacher as Leader

Roll No: 160

Teacher:

“A teacher is an individual who imparts knowledge, skills, and guidance to students, typically in an educational setting such as a school or a classroom.”

Leader:

“A leader is someone who guides, influences, and directs a group of individuals or an organization towards a common goal, often by inspiring and motivating others.”

Teacher as Leader:

Teachers serve as leaders in the classroom, guiding and inspiring students toward academic success. Their leadership extends beyond imparting knowledge; they foster a positive learning environment, instill values, and shape the future by nurturing the potential within each student.

Defination:

“A teacher as a leader is someone who not only imparts knowledge but also guides, motivates, and inspires students. They provide direction, set expectations, and create a positive learning environment, shaping the educational experience and influencing the development of their students.”

Leadership Qualities in Teaching:

❖ Communication Skills

Effective teachers as leaders excel in conveying information clearly, adapting their communication to diverse learning styles, and fostering open dialogue with students.

❖ Adaptability

Leaders in teaching navigate the dynamic nature of education by adapting their methods to different students' needs, emerging technologies, and evolving educational trends.

❖ Empathy

Understanding students' perspectives and challenges enables teachers to create a supportive environment, fostering trust and a positive learning atmosphere.

❖ Organizational Skills

Successful teacher-leaders manage classroom logistics efficiently, plan lessons effectively, and coordinate various activities to create a structured and conducive learning environment.

❖ Inspirational Motivation

Leaders in teaching inspire and motivate students, instilling a sense of purpose and enthusiasm for learning, which contributes to higher engagement and academic achievement.

❖ Decision-Making

Teachers as leaders make informed decisions, balancing the needs of individual students and the overall class to create an optimal learning experience.

❖ Problem-Solving

The ability to identify challenges and find creative solutions is crucial. Teacher-leaders address obstacles in the learning process, ensuring continuous improvement.

❖ Collaboration

Teachers collaborate with colleagues, parents, and administrators to enhance the overall educational experience, sharing ideas and working collectively toward common goals.

➤ As an Instructional Leader:

A teacher as an instructional leader is someone who not only imparts knowledge but also actively shapes and facilitates the learning experience by employing effective teaching strategies, promoting critical thinking, and encouraging student engagement and growth.

➤ As an Transformational Leader:

As a transformational leader, a teacher goes beyond conventional instruction, inspiring and motivating students to achieve their potential. This involves fostering a positive and innovative learning environment, promoting self-discovery, and encouraging students to develop critical thinking skills, ultimately transforming them into independent and lifelong learners.

➤ Human Relationship:

Human relationship emphasizes the interpersonal aspect of education. In this context, a teacher not only imparts knowledge but also establishes meaningful connections with students, fostering trust, understanding, and support for their personal and academic development.

